Mr Wm Brewster
Dear Sir.-

You have probably heard of the death of Mr Austin Park of this City & you probably remember what a choice collection of birds he owned He has left his widow with nothing hardly Enough to pay funeral Expense Except the birds and the collection must be sold - As you were a particular friend of his. I am quite sure you will interest yourself in some plan to dispose of his collection. Wish you could buy it & would come over soon and see it. It would be so bad to sell it for a song Mrs Parks remember your being here once, & at her suggestion I write you. I am a relation and am trying to get what I can for her as she needs it so bad, and there is no one else to do it for her. Yours truly
